MEDIA ALERT
March 14, 2018

Kane County Farm Bureau's 35th Annual Ag Days

Reporters and photographers are invited to attend this event sponsored by the Kane County Farm Bureau. Kane County farmers will be available for interviews at the event.

WHAT: Ag Days at Mooseheart

WHEN: Tuesday, March 20 & Wednesday, March 21
Presentations: 10am – Noon (for best photo opportunities)

WHO: Kane County Farm Bureau Ag Literacy Program, fourth grade students and their teachers from Kane County elementary schools.

20+ area commodity groups, agricultural businesses and organizations, and local farmers will be on hand (schedule of attending schools is attached).

WHERE: Mooseheart Fieldhouse (Mooseheart Road and Rt. 31 near Batavia)

DETAILS: For over three decades the Kane County Farm Bureau has provided a way for students to see Kane County agriculture all in one place. Students will hear and take part in short presentations on agricultural topics, livestock and farm machinery led by farmers and presenters from many facets of the agriculture industry. They will rotate through a series of 20+ stations to learn about various crops, biotechnology, historical and current agricultural machinery and tools, vermicomposting, soils, water, and farm animals of our county.
